Adoption Reads

More than just books

Where a book ends, conversations begin.

For families and young children (3-8)

Storybook + LifeBook series

A simple story to spark conversations and explain the adoption journey to your child, paired with a LifeBook for your child's unique story. For couple and single parents who adopted. Available in English, French, Spanish, Italian, and Cantonese.

For preteens and teenagers (8-14)

Chapter book - debut series

Book One of the Erin's Journal series.

Funny, honest, and eye-opening, Erin's Journal: 6th Grade Big Project brings adoption to life through the eyes of a witty preteen. From big questions to everyday emotions, Erin's story explores growing up adopted with heart and humour, while shedding light on modern adoption, inclusive language, and all the ways families are formed. Perfect for tweens, teens, and anyone curious about what adoption really feels like from the inside.

Firebird International Book Award 2025
Preteen Fiction - 3rd place winner

For adoptive families, prospective parents, adoptees, and anyone interested in learning and reflecting on Adoption.

Education series

A beautifully illustrated books series that opens hearts and minds to adoption through story, self-reflection, and the power of language. A must-have for adoptees, adoptive families, and anyone ready to explore adoption with insight and respect.
